- The minimum provisions for a report prepared by a licensed home inspector (18 VAC15-40-130) were amended to conform to Chapter 805 of the 2017 Acts of Assembly. The new law, effective July 1, 2017, mandates that if a home inspector observes the presence of any yellow corrugated stainless steel tubing (CSST) while inspecting a home built prior to the adoption of the 2006 Virginia Construction Code, the home inspector must disclose this observation in the home inspection report, along with a specific advisory statement to the consumer. In addition, 18 VAC 15-40-10 is amended to incorporate relevant definitions for the home inspection report from the applicable statute.
