

OCTOBER IS...

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Behind Closed Doors: Understanding
Domestic Violence and Fair Housing

“Ending The Silence And Healing The Home”

October 31, 2017

10:00 am – 2:30 pm

Center for Housing Education Center

502 Franklin Street, Danville, VA 24541

A Collaboration of: Danville Fair Housing Board •
Haven of the Dan River Region, Inc • The Virginia
Fair Housing Office • The Office of the Attorney General of VA • E. Gregory Hairston, Attorney And Counselor At Law • City of Danville • Social Services
• Danville Redevelopment & Housing Authority •
Dan River Region Association of Realtors • Legal Aid

SPEAKERS

Representatives from Haven of the Dan River Region-A Domestic Violence Organization, The Virginia Fair Housing Office, The Attorney General's Office, Local Attorney, Social Services Local Police and Danville Redevelopment & Housing Authority

TOPICS

“Domestic Violence in Our Communities”

“The Laws that Protect the Rights of Victims of Domestic Violence” (Virginia Landlord/Tenant Act, The Virginia Fair Housing Law)

“Human Trafficking” - How to Recognize it and What to do...

“VOICES...Victims of Domestic Violence”

TO REGISTER -

This event is FREE.
Lunch will be provided.

RSVP to browenj@danvilleva.gov with individual/agency name and number attending.

RSVP by Friday, October 25, 2017.