

OCTOBER IS . . .

Domestic Violence Awareness Month

Behind Closed Doors: Understanding
Domestic Violence and Fair Housing

Ending The Silence & Healing The Home

November 8, 2017

10:00 am – 3:00 pm

Jefferson Center Foundation

541 Luck Ave., Roanoke VA 24016

A Collaboration of:

Total Action for Progress (TAP) • Roanoke Legal Aid Center • The Virginia Fair Housing Office •
The Office of the Attorney General

SPEAKERS

Representatives from various Domestic Violence Organizations, The Virginia Fair Housing Office, The Attorney General's Office, state & local Legal Aid Offices and The Virginia Poverty Law Center

TOPICS

Domestic Violence in Our Communities

Laws that Protect the Rights of Victims of Domestic Violence
(Virginia Landlord/Tenant Act,
The Virginia Fair Housing Law)

Human Trafficking: How to Recognize it and What to do

VOICES...

Victims of Domestic Violence

TO REGISTER

This event is FREE.

Lunch will be on-your-own.

Register online at

[https://www.eventbrite.com
/e/understanding-domestic-violence-fair-housing-tickets-
39171288378](https://www.eventbrite.com/e/understanding-domestic-violence-fair-housing-tickets-39171288378)